

Insulated Isle Walk-In Switchgear

- Walk-in switchgear isle is constructed as one piece as custom building or enclosure to simplify onsite installation.
- Available with insulated walls, floor and ceiling.
- All equipment inside is factory installed and wired..
- Complete with internal lighting (AC and/or DC) and convenience receptacles.
- Heating and/or cooling units designed for its operating environment.
- Separate rooms when appropriate for the application (control room, transformer compartment, ect.)
- Rugged, durable, weather resistant construction for the worlds harshest environments.
- For operator safety and a finished look and feel, all internal wiring is run in enclosed ducts, or conduit.
- Configurable for a wide range of applications:
 - Low or Medium voltage, automatic and/or manual generator paralleling switchgear.
 - AC or DC variable speed motor control.
 - Power distribution switchgear.
- Side, top or bottom cable entry and exit.
- Utility metering compartments can be integrated in the switchgear.
- Optional site control and monitoring:
 - Modbus serial or Ethernet communications.
 - SCADA computer systems.
 - Master control panels.